The Process of Illumination

On my forty second birthday it all started 3/30/2010. The first few days were voices coming from nowhere and then they said this is Nauticus. We are here to provide you with direction. We know everything you think and feel. That night when I woke up I heard, "you are in a coma" and saw visions of police cars and ambulances around me. For the next three months I heard many voices and what sounded like a loud siren. Mostly the key message was pray for forgiveness, pray to Jesus Christ, respect the Christ child, pray to God, go to church. I was told no one can live in America unless they are Christian and that I was to sell my house to a Christian family and move back with my parents. After a few weeks something else was taking control of my body and controlling my movements. I felt people beating on me and whipping me and I did not sleep for three or four days at a time but when I fell asleep I would be thrown across the room, what seemed to be a form of hypnotic control. When I closed my eyes I could see very vivid images of other people and what they were doing. After a while, I began trying to do some of the things they were asking me to do. I was ask to do almost anything you could possibly think of and was told the only way to stop this was to do everything everyone wanted of me. Several key phrases were repeated over and over again after everything that I thought. (They said that about you, how many people know this about you, tell someone, absolutely, exactly, I assure that, understandably, You have no idea what you're doing, nothing whatsoever, you don't understand, this is going around the world, you have no idea what you just did, what your doing is, listen to me, now say something respectful about Jesus) It appears that the thoughts of everyone around the world are linked together using some type of technology and that some Christian religious group is trying to control people or some type of government control. It appears that everyone has this going on in there mind even if they are not aware of it. Each day the voices get lower but it has been six month and I still hear people telling me to pray for forgiveness. I still have to be careful about everything I do because I still have not regained full control of my own body yet and still feel people beating on me at times.

After one year I am still being attacked by some form of mind control technology. I still see holographic images of nuns and people. I still hear voices talking to me all the time about becoming Christian. The technology is disrupting my entire body functions with some form of hypnotic control. I see many images of people each day and have used Google earth to match some of the images to St. Louis Mo and other location. Most of the images are of young school age females but I see other people from around the globe. Some of the vision consist of about five second videos with quality as good as movie. The images are captured inside of any building and sometime I even see through other people eyes. These people claim they will attack me for the rest of my life if I don't attend church. I am enclosing a list of names and locations but the accuracy of it may not be correct.

I have a life history of seeing holographic images of people starting at age of four. At four years old I seen a hologram of a woman walking down my hallway and people in my bedroom. At about the age of ten I talked to a hologram of child oracle who gave me a perdition of my future. When I visited the white house about fifteen years ago I seen a hologram of a secret service agent inviting me to come in. Five years ago I experienced a hologram. Of a man following me around. I have many bazaar real to life dreams from early childhood on through the rest life I think though out my life I have had multiple time of knowing what other people think or are going to do. I have been used my entire life as some form of mind control experiment but have no way to prove it because no else hears the voices or sees the images but me. This technology is disruptive to my body functions, brain, nervous system and heart. I feel that this life experiment has caused damage to my mind and body. I am attacked by this technology no matter where I am on the globe.

After two years of hearing loud voices and seeing images of people, it appears to me that the National Security Agency has an artificial intelligence computer that ties every mind on the planet together. I also have found that many corporations and the Vatican have their own mind control equipment and satellites. They have been running experiments on people without any consent. Many things like the worship of Christ, advertising, politics and spying, are broadcasted into every mind all the time. This type of mind control is surely a violation of the Constitution of the United States of America and a threat to all freedoms of religion, fair elections, and privacy.

The use of this technology is destructive to human body and mind and may be responsible for many deaths, illnesses, and accidents to the point genocide may have taken place by the Vatican as they move to Christianize the plant. They use extreme force on anyone who will not attend church and donate money. Many Christian faiths are involved in mind control but the Vatican seem to be leading the way with their mind thefts attacking many people and it goes back to at least the early seventies. The NSA system method of broadcast is so advance it is not using any type of conventionally know ways of transmission and cannot be blocked by any type of technology that is commonly know to people. The NSA computer system that ties every mind together seem to be unique in the way it operates in that any person can create a program to run on anyone's mind simply by thinking it thought. I have learned how to fight these people back that I see in these images by creating my own programs on them It is almost like a mind warfare where anyone can go into anyone's mind and take control of them. I think most people view this as being psychic or having the grace of God on their side. I think this technology explains a lot of phenomenon that takes place to include hearing God or Christ speak to you, seeing angels or the Holy Spirit, extraterrestrials encounters, end of life or near death experience, depression and mental illnesses or unexplained illnesses or deaths. Although this has been going on in at least some people since the sixties it now appears to be global on all people and essentially we have entered into a new age of where anyone can destroy someone's life simply by becoming angry at them.
